RJC CERTIFIES EFTEOR SA

LONDON - RJC announced today that EFTEOR SA, the Swiss jewellery manufacturer, has achieved Certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC.

“RJC warmly congratulates EFTEOR SA on its Certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Jean-François Jenni from Bureau Veritas Italia, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC,” says Ashish Deo, RJC’s Chief Executive Officer.

“EFTEOR SA is proud to have achieved the RJC Certification. This accomplishment confirms our company’s commitment to responsible and ethical business practices. Our core value is to drive our business individually and collectively in a sustainable and responsible way to deliver quality client services,” says Leonis Tafaj, CEO, EFTEOR SA.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 500 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
