DIALINK FRANCE SAS CERTIFIED BY THE RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL

LONDON – The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) today announced that Dialink France SAS, the Paris-based diamond brokering company, has achieved certification meeting the ethical, human rights, social and environmental standards as established by the RJC’s Member Certification System.

“RJC is delighted to congratulate Dialink France SAS on its certification. The successful verification assessment of Dialink France SAS was conducted by Melisa Cerizza from UL Responsible Sourcing (STR), one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC’s Member Certification System,” says Michael Rae, RJC’s Chief Executive Officer.

“At Dialink, being certified by the RJC is not only a recognition of our innovative business model fully based on transparency and integrity, but it also reinforces our commitment to help the industry reach the highest ethical, human rights, social and environmental standards,” says Mathieu E. Cheyrouze, President & CEO of Dialink France SAS.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 350 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members’ businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC’s Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
